TROJAN

Pauline Caldwell '63 year Book

Dedication

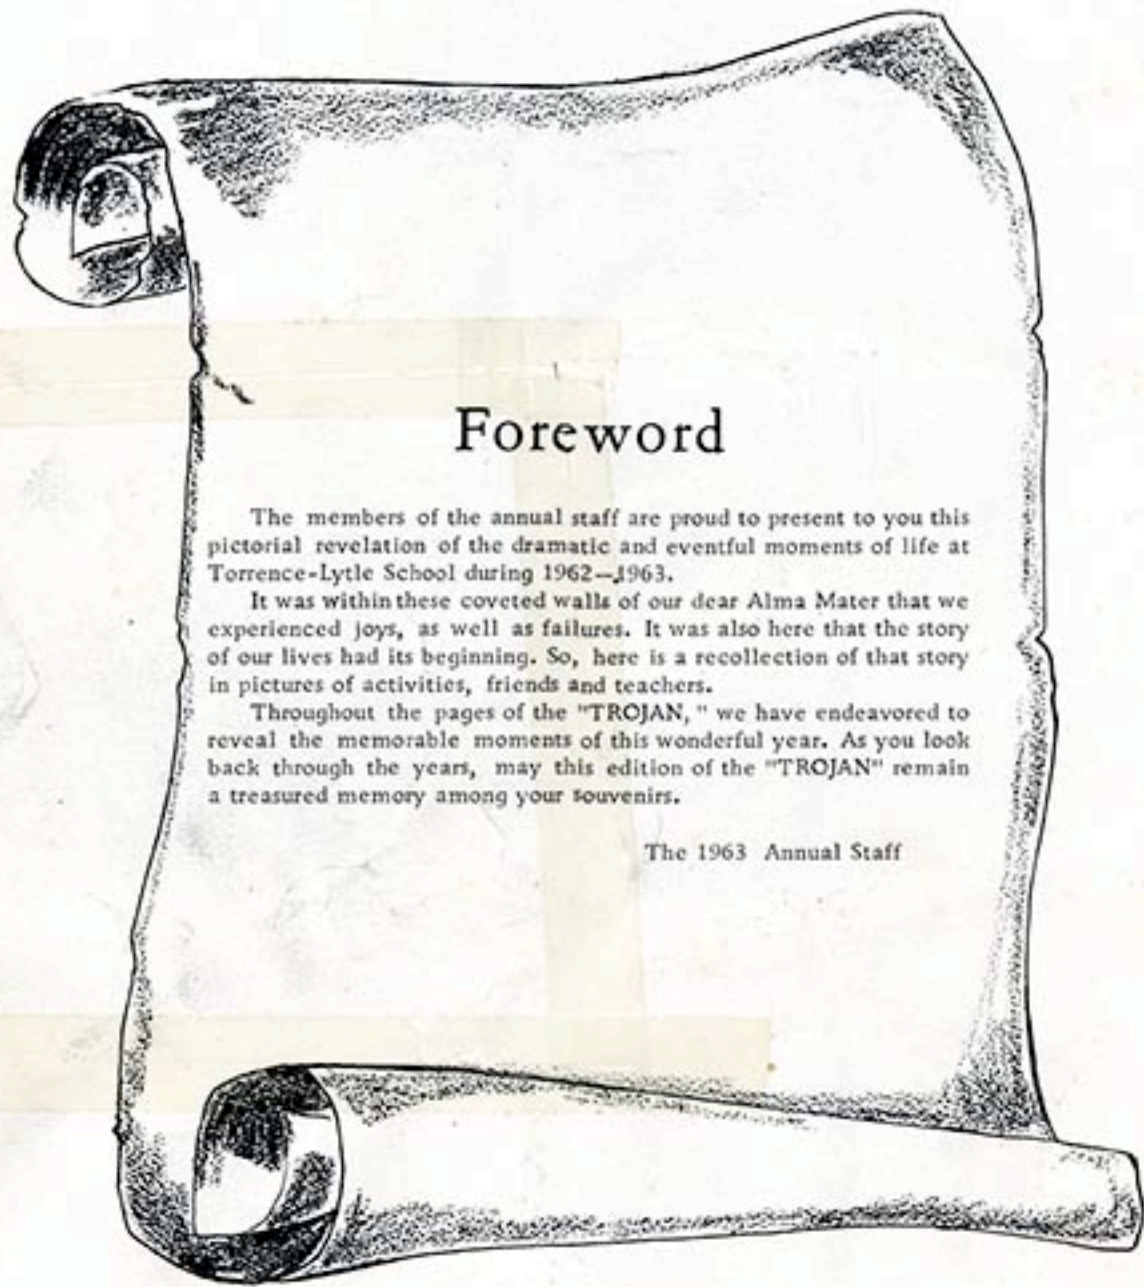

To MR. FRANCIS M. JONES who has been an inspiration to all the students at Torrence-Lytle High School, we do sincerely dedicate this 1963 edition of the TROJAN. Many of the students know of his concern for the students and his interest in the general welfare of the school. Through the years it has been he who has helped us find values and secure knowledge necessary to meet the demands of our changing society. His never-ending devotion and his persevering efforts have imprinted upon our minds a feeling of indebtedness which can never be repaid.

The Trojan 1963

Torrence-Lytle High School
Huntersville, North Carolina

Foreword

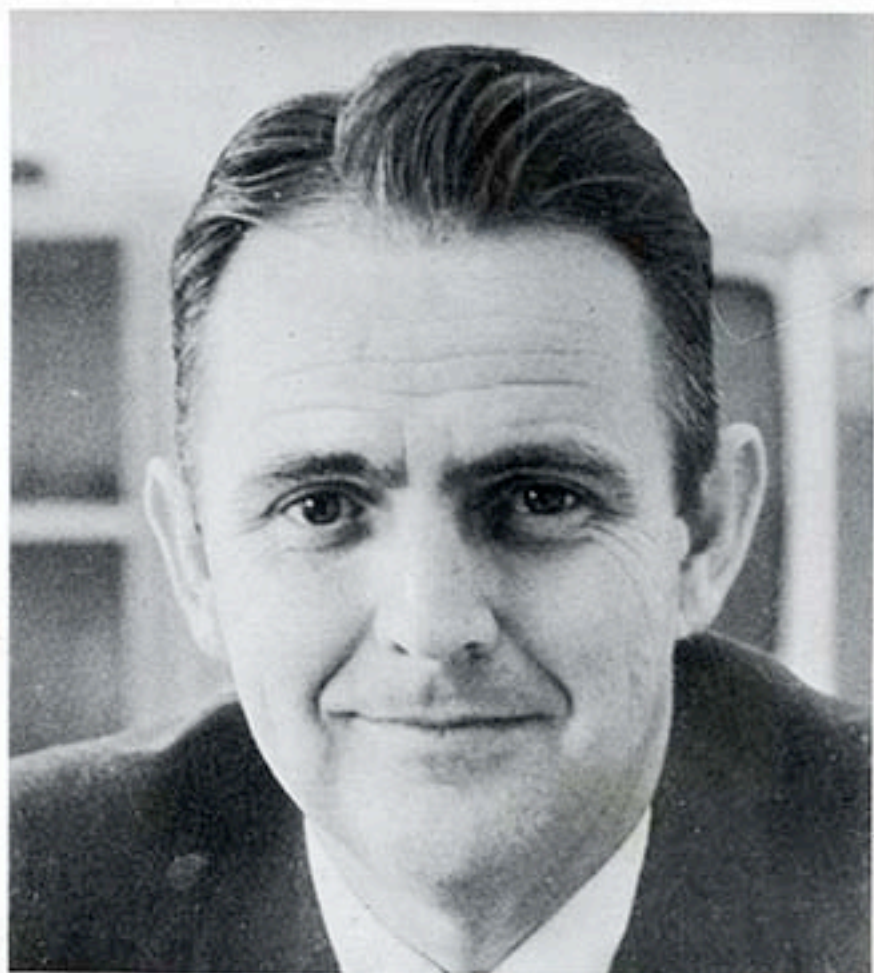

The members of the annual staff are proud to present to you this pictorial revelation of the dramatic and eventful moments of life at Torrence-Lytle School during 1962-1963.

It was within these coveted walls of our dear Alma Mater that we experienced joys, as well as failures. It was also here that the story of our lives had its beginning. So, here is a recollection of that story in pictures of activities, friends and teachers.

Throughout the pages of the "TROJAN," we have endeavored to reveal the memorable moments of this wonderful year. As you look back through the years, may this edition of the "TROJAN" remain a treasured memory among your souvenirs.
