FOREWORD

We, the Seniors of Torrence-Lytle High School wish to share with you, through pictures and words, some of our happy and joyous moments during 1964-1965---our last year. We shall endeavor to show you our happiest moments as well as some of our more serious ones. This was the year when we put our final touches on the momentous adventures which we began 12 years ago.

As you turn through the pages of the "Trojan" may your memories be revived and may your spirits be elevated as you view the year through the eyes of the Seniors.

Trojan Staff

OUR ALMA MATER

The musical score is written for a four-part vocal ensemble (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in the key of B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. The score is divided into five systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are: "O Torrence-Lytle to us so dear We'll raise a glorious song To sing Thy Praise in voices Clear Dear old School March on". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the vocal melody.

O Torrence-Lytle to us so dear

We'll raise a glorious song

To sing Thy Praise in voices Clear

Dear old School March on

Loyal sons and daughters too
Serve thee well and serve thee true
O Torrence-Lytle our Alma Mater
Hail Old Gold and Blue

TO YOU

We dedicate to you, Mrs. Johnsie A. Beaver, our annual, hoping in our humble way to express the deep respect and affection that we feel for you. You have assuredly worked diligently and affectively to impart knowledge to the students and to guide the people of the school community. For the services which you have rendered we are indebted to you, but we feel it is a debt that we can never fully repay. We also feel that this association with you will be pleasant memories to us.

ADMINISTRATION

OUR PRINCIPAL . . .

SPEAKS

Congratulations to the graduating class of 1965. You have reached a milestone that should signal the beginning of an era of thorough preparation for your particular place in life in a rapidly changing world.

It is the sincere hope of all of us who have had a part in shaping your lives, that you have developed habits, attitudes, skills, and inquisitive minds sufficient for the task ahead. May each of you accept with dignity your responsibility for making your maximum contribution to your community, your race, and your country. Recognition of your limitations, abilities, and opportunities, is a prerequisite for greatest achievement.

As responsible citizens of tomorrow, you have the unique opportunity to elevate the Negro in the minds of many who have only seen the worst side of the Negro accentuated. As you take your places beside other citizens in school or on the job, you should and must behave sanely and with dignity and intelligence.

May your aims be high, and your will indomitable as you carve for yourselves an enviable record in a rough technological world.

FEATURES

MISS SENIOR

Miss Fredda Williams, "Miss Senior" for 1965, is a member of the following clubs: Student Council, Future Business Leaders of America, Dramatics Club and Y-Teen. She also sings in the school's Glee Club.

She is a "B" average student, very co-operative and well-liked.

Miss Williams plans to become a secretary after completing her high school education.

We salute her "Miss Senior 1965".

C. L. Crump attended Kingville High School, Albemarle, North Carolina. He received his B.S. degree from Winston Salem State College and his M.A. degree from A. & T. College in Greensboro, North Carolina. He worked in Gaston County two years before coming to Torrence-Lytle.

In 1955, he started the first band at Torrence-Lytle School. After working with the band for several years, he was successful with a 65 piece band.

Later his interest was placed on athletics. He was assistant football and basketball coach. In 1962, he became head basketball coach and was successful in winning all home games in 1964-65.

Tommy Crank attended Highland High School in Gastonia, North Carolina. He received his B.S. degree from Winston Salem State College. He also attended Howard University, Belmont Abbey, and Johnson C. Smith University. He teaches History at Torrence-Lytle School.

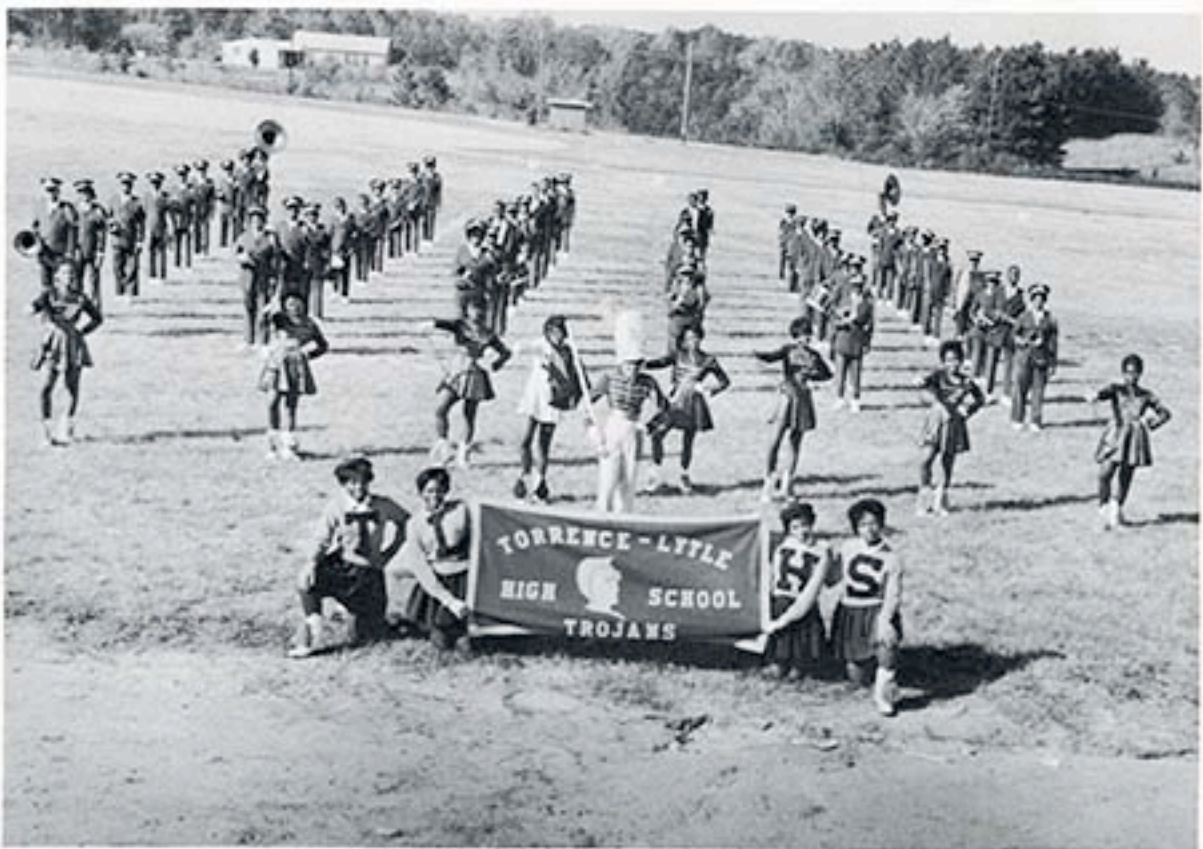

He is the coach of the football and baseball teams. He is also the assistant coach of the basketball team. The records for this year were as follows:

football; 1-3-5 and basketball, 13-2.
